Highway Patrol Report Is Released

Dochan District week-end traffic round-up July 31 thru Aug. 18 2, from 6:00 p.m. Friday through midnight Sunday, your Alabama Highway Patrol investigated 153 rural traffic accidents. In these accidents 60 persons were injured and 11 were killed.

The eight county Dochon District Troopers investigated 16 accidents with 5 injuries and no one was killed over the week-end.

The traffic law violations causing these accidents were: speeding, reckless driving, wrong side of road, following too close, fail to yield right of way, defective equipment, animal in road, parked in road, fail to signal, and improper towing of another vehicle.

The Dochon District has 29 fatalities so far this year as compared with 36 at this same time last year.

Vote By Wheat Farmers Changed

Secretary of Agriculture Clifford M. Hardin has announced postponement of the national wheat referendum previously scheduled for July 27-31, according to Roy L. Ellis, Chairman of the Coffee Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Committee. The action was authorized by Congress.

The postponement permits the USDA to delay holding the referendum not later than October 15, 1970, or 30 days after Congress adjourns, whichever date is earlier.

Accordingly, the U. S. Department of Agriculture's ASCS, which administers the wheat, feed grain, and similar programs, has instructed its state and county officers across the nation to withhold ballots and other referendum materials, Mr. Ellis said.

The Chairman explained that basic farm legislation requires a referendum for wheat marketing quotas. However, the Agricultural Act of 1965 suspended this referendum requirement from 1965 through the 1970 crop year. Unless new farm legislation, now pending, is enacted by the Congress, the ASCS will again go into effect, and a referendum will then be required in 1970 for the 1971 crop year.

A $750,000 study has been authorized by the Central Maine Power and Maine Yankee to determine what effect power plant operation will have on the ecology of the area. A major effort is being made to develop aquacultural use of warm water discharges of both conventional and nuclear steam plants. A grant has been made to the State Department of Sea and Shore Fisheries to determine if commercial valuable marine products such as oysters, clams, mussels, marine worms and Irish moss can be cultivated in the warm water outfall.

Concern Expressed Over Lost Jobs

Following the fact that members of the union, Local 2003 and the new contractor Embury Riddle Aeronautical Institute had failed to come to an agreement the U. S. Army took over all primary rotary wing instrument training and advanced fixed wing instrument at Ft. Rucker, last Monday at noon.

Of much concern now is the fact that there is the possibility that the Army may not continue this work at Ft. Rucker since there are a number of military installations wanting some of Ruckers training program. Embury Riddle, who won the contract is disappointed in the fact that the Army has taken over the contract at Ft. Rucker and members of the union are disappointed in the fact that an agreement could not be reached between them and Embury Riddle.

General Telephone Tells Of Rate Increase

General Telephone Company of Alabama has been allowed an increase in rates by the Alabama Public Service Commission. The telephone company has requested a rate increase of 3.41 percent but were granted a rate increase of 7.42%.

James Brown, District Manager for General Telephone Company said, "While we are pleased that the Commission has ordered our Company to file tariff sheets allowing for new rates, we are disappointed that it failed to grant the full amount required to adequately support our expanded capital investment in Alabama."

As a part of its Order issued in March 1969, granting the Company permission to earn a specified rate of return on its investment, the Commission also ordered the Company to provide statistical information reflecting a "six month review of earnings."

Shortly thereafter, both the Company and opponents of the request for a rate increase appealed the Commission Order. The court subsequently remanded the case to the Commission, with instructions that a rehearing would be held only after the information requested in the "six month review" became available.

The Company provided the information as requested.

Sparkman Supporting Free "Recount"

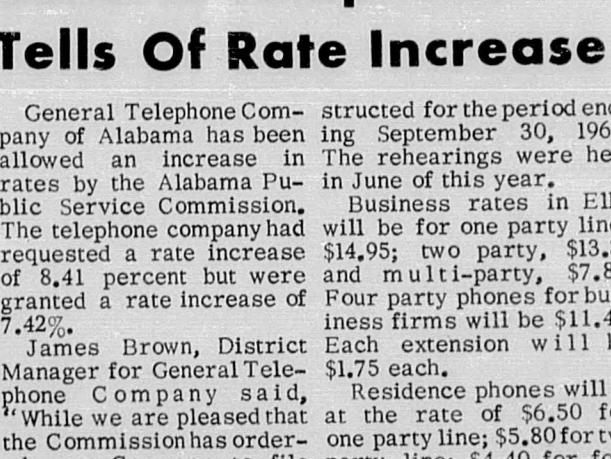

State, cities and counties which challenge 1970 census figures could conduct population recounts of their areas, at the expense of the federal government, under a bill introduced today by Democratic Senators John Sparkman and James B. Allen of Alabama.

Sparkman declared in a Senate speech that there is "dissatisfaction and alarm over what state and local authorities regard as undercounts of population in the 1970 decennial census. The Alabama Senator asserted that there was discontent and disbelief with regard to the latest federal census all over the United States."

Under the bill sponsored by Sparkman and Allen, local units of government which conducted population recounts would be entitled to federal reimbursement for the expense involved if the recounts, verified by the Secretary of Commerce, exceed census totals by 1% or more.

COUPLE EXCHANGE WEDDING VOWS

The Clayton Baptist Church provided the setting for the marriage of Miss Penelope Irene DeVane to James Olen Donaldson on July 16. The double-ring vows were read by the Rev. Olyn S. Sims, pastor of the church, at 7:30 in the evening.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Charlie Richard DeVane, Sr., and the late Mr. DeVane, of Clayton and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Donaldson, of Enterprise, are the parents of the groom.

A program of pre-nuptial music was presented by Mrs. A. B. Robertson, Sr., church organist. Mrs. Guice Slawson, of Louisville, sang, "Whither Thou Goest," "Oh, Perfect Love," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The channel of the church was decorated with green and white and the focal point was a large, elaborate arrangement of white gladioli and mums. Lighted white tapers burned in a graduated candelabra.

Given in marriage by her brothers, Charlie R. DeVane, Jr., of Birmingham, and Joe Ben DeVane, of Elba, the bride wore a gown of peau de soie and imported Brussels lace, fashioned with a lace bodice, mandarin collar and long sleeves. The full skirt ended in a chapel train. Her veil of illusion was attached to a crown of lace petals accented with seed pearls and sequins. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and yellow sweetheart roses centered with a white orchid.

The bride was accompanied by Miss Brenda Cash, of Clayton, and Miss Paula Donaldson, sister of the groom, Enterprise, as honor attendants. Miss

The front was accented with ruffles and white buttons detailed the bodice to the waistline. The yellow skirts had wide buckled belts. They wore matching headpieces of dior bows and yellow veiling and carried a single stemmed yellow rose entwined with fern and tied with yellow ribbons.

ATTEND THE CHURCH OF YOUR CHOICE SUNDAY

Those stirring words of the Twenty-Third Psalm:

He leads me beside the still waters . . . He restores my soul

The psalmist must have known the turmoil of life, even though he lived three thousand years ago. At least he had experienced the peace which comes upon a man when he escapes the bustling world and rests in the quiet stillness of nature's scene. And he caught its spiritual meaning!

A man's soul, like his body, needs to be restored. Just as sleep and recreation rebuild our physical strength, prayer and worship re-vitalize our spiritual being.

Thoughtfully, our forefathers taught us to spend part of each day in spiritual pursuits. Wisely, they set aside one day of the week for worship.

The Church provides opportunity for Sunday worship, and guidance in every-day devotion to God.

HATCHERY AND PROCESSING PLANT

I had to pinch myself to believe that we are fortunate enough in Coffee County to be getting a hatchery and processing plant. In addition to this, H. J. Harrell is building a hatchery and other facilities to take care of an expanding broiler industry in the county. I drove by the plant which is being built. It is located right past Double Bridges in the Ashbury community.

The hatchery is being built right next to the road. The 68,000 square foot broiler processing plant is located about 100 yards back of this on a slight hill. I understand that this might be operational by or before the end of the year. This is a great thing for Coffee County.

HOG TOUR

We are pleased to have the Coffee County hog producers tour some of our top Coffee County hog farms. The Crenshaw County group are going to visit the J. B. Mills farm in Elba early in the morning on August 19. They will spend about 30 minutes there and visit the Walter Waters farm at Level Plains around 9:00 o'clock.

The fact that these neighboring folks would visit these two farms shows that our hog producers are making progress. I remember that in the early 1950s the Coffee County Hog Producers Association held a group of North Alabama farms on a two-day trip. Folks like Eugene Farris, Elmer and Wilder Bryan, Ira Allen Leamon Farris and others still tell J. R. Speed and me that they had been on the tour they had ever been on. We hope the Crenshaw County folks will enjoy visiting in Coffee County.

MILESTONE FOR 4-H

A lot of folks don't know it, but the National 4-H Club Center in Washington is serving over 20,000 people each year. It was opened in 1959. When the $8 million current expansion is completed, it will accommodate 60,000 folks a year. They are building a 200 bed dormitory building with a cafeteria to serve 600. The money for all of this has already been raised.

Other facilities to be built include a library, chapel, auditorium, class rooms and a seminar center. Alabama has already reached its $35,000 goal. I am going to visit the center some time soon. I lies with the untested champ—the Lilliston Turnover Shaker. If you remember, this was the original—the one that started the whole peanut inversion business three years ago. Since then, constant field-testing has honed its performance close to perfection. The fact is, the Lilliston Turnover Shaker is the only inverter that turns the nuts completely over—puts them on the up and up—topside to stay.

You know what that does for profits? Helps keep them sunnyside up.

Committee Nominations Open

Coffee County farmers will soon have the opportunity to nominate by petition candidates for ASC community committee posts.

The nominating period will begin July 28 and close August 17. "This year we hope farmers in Coffee County will nominate by petition full slates for all 11 committees. A full slate means a minimum of six candidates to choose from in electing a community committee of three members and two alternates," Roy L. Ellis, Chairman of the Coffee County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, said. "All ASC community committees are elected annually. The newly-elected community committees will convene shortly after their September election to elect one new ASC County Committee member and two alternates. County Committee members serve three-year terms, with one new member elected each year. Alternates are elected annually."

Mr. Ellis explained that the County ASC Committee certainly hope that we will have a lot of outstanding 4-H Club boys and girls from Coffee County to get the opportunity to spend a week or so at this center.

Commission Seeks County Landmark Identification

A campaign is underway to locate and list all important landmarks in Coffee County, the Alabama Historical Commission announced today.

W. Warner Floyd, executive director of the historical commission, said the agency particularly needs the help of local residents of the county to help compile the list.

"We need information that can best be obtained from the people who are familiar with the historic buildings and sites in the area in order to prepare this preliminary survey," Floyd explained.

The structures on the list will be examined by survey workers from the commission staff, and the most significant of these National Register of Historic Places.

Floyd asked that members of historical societies, civic groups, church groups, and other interested individuals send to the historical commission a list of significant historical, architectural, or archaeological landmarks which they feel merit a place on the preliminary list.

Major Clark attended Elba City High School and graduated in 1956. Before entering the service Major Clark received his Bachelor's degree from the University of Jacksonville, Jacksonville, Alabama.

should be included about the significance of the structure or site, as well as the date of construction, if known.

Letters should be addressed to the Alabama Historical Commission, 305 South Lawrence Street, Montgomery, Ala. 36104. Floyd outlined the basic criteria which should be used in compiling the lists.

"Any building or site over fifty years old is worth consideration," he said.

"Also, any building or site associated with a famous Alabamian or American or with an important event in Alabama or American history."

According to Floyd, this survey of Coffee County is part of a preliminary statewide plan of preservation which will be used to determine the future development of historic preservation in Alabama.

The members of the commission, fifteen top-ranking representatives of the public and private groups in the state who are interested in historic preservation, will set up priorities concerning which structures and sites are in need of immediate restoration and preservation. This listing will also be used to determine the allocation of state and federal preservation funds," Floyd said.

The preliminary list will later be revised to form an Alabama Register of Historic Places.

The executive director stressed that the preliminary lists must be received by August 15, in order for the Commission to meet a federal deadline.

should be included about the significance of the structure or site, as well as the date of construction, if known.

Letters should be addressed to the Alabama Historical Commission, 305 South Lawrence Street, Montgomery, Ala. 36104. Floyd outlined the basic criteria which should be used in compiling the lists.

"Any building or site over fifty years old is worth consideration," he said.

"Also, any building or site associated with a famous Alabamian or American or with an important event in Alabama or American history."

According to Floyd, this survey of Coffee County is part of a preliminary statewide plan of preservation which will be used to determine the future development of historic preservation in Alabama.

The members of the commission, fifteen top-ranking representatives of the public and private groups in the state who are interested in historic preservation, will set up priorities concerning which structures and sites are in need of immediate restoration and preservation. This listing will also be used to determine the allocation of state and federal preservation funds," Floyd said.

The preliminary list will later be revised to form an Alabama Register of Historic Places.

The executive director stressed that the preliminary lists must be received by August 15, in order for the Commission to meet a federal deadline.
